Felipe Aragón é um cidadão espanhol-colombiano, formado como advogado na Espanha, especializado em direito comercial, direito de investimento internacional e arbitragem internacional.

EXPERIÊNCIA PROFISSIONAL

Felipe Aragón é Of Counsel na Armesto Dispute Resolution, uma boutique líder na Península Ibérica, fundada em 2001 por Juan Fernández-Armesto, especializada em arbitragem comercial e de investimento. Felipe atua como secretário de tribunais arbitrais em procedimentos de arbitragem internacional e doméstica, tanto ad hoc quanto administrados, envolvendo disputas comerciais e de investimento. Os casos são administrados pelo ICSID, ICC, PCA, bem como por instituições arbitrais espanholas e latino-americanas. Quanto às arbitragens ad hoc, a maioria delas está sujeita às Regras UNCITRAL.

Felipe administra procedimentos sob diferentes leis aplicáveis, relacionados ao setor de energia, minerais e outros recursos naturais, contratos comerciais, M&A, concessões públicas e contratos EPC.

Ele é co-fundador da IASC, uma organização sem fins lucrativos de jovens praticantes que oferece cursos de treinamento em arbitragem internacional e promove sua compreensão como um mecanismo eficaz de resolução de disputas.

EDUCAÇÃO

Felipe possui um Duplo Diploma em Direito e Economia pela Universidad Carlos III de Madrid. Durante seus estudos, ele passou um semestre na Universidade Jan Amos Komensky de Praga.

Felipe também possui um Mestrado em Prática Jurídica pela UDIMA e um Certificado Avançado em Arbitragem pela Universidad CEU San Pablo e pelo Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.
